DIRECTOR (DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL)
Fraud and Consumer Protection Division
Medicaid Fraud Control Unit
New Castle County

Description of Duties:

The Delaware Department of Justice is seeking an exceptional and highly motivated individual to lead the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit (“MFCU”) as the Director, in the Fraud and Consumer Protection Division in New Castle County. The primary responsibility for this Deputy Attorney General is to manage a team of approximately 15 professionals focused upon identifying and prosecuting, both criminally and civilly, fraud by providers in the Medicaid system; drug diversion by participants in the healthcare system, and patient abuse and neglect at facilities that receive Medicaid funding. The MFCU team includes Deputy Attorneys General, Special Investigators, paralegals, and professionals with expertise in accounting and in the provision of medical services. In addition, the Unit Head will oversee global qui tam False Claim cases coordinated by the National Association of Medicaid Fraud Control Units.

This is a challenging position that requires oversight of complex criminal and civil proceedings, fraud investigations, interagency coordination and the ability to lead a group of highly capable professionals with diverse skills. Demonstrated management experience is preferred. Experience with criminal prosecutions, criminal investigations and fraud investigations is preferred. This position requires both leadership qualities and substantial interpersonal skills.
